MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Certification of the Need for Extension of Classification on Documents Systematically Reviewed and Processed During the Year 1980

REFERENCE: Memorandum of 24 April 1981 to Director of Central Intelligence from [redacted] Deputy Director for Administration

81-05052

25X1

25X1 1. In referenced memorandum requesting certification for the years 1978 and 1979, [redacted] described the manner in which systematic review is conducted, the experience level of the officers conducting the review, and the types of information we are protecting under Executive Order 12065. He further explained that Classification Review Division's recommendations are recorded in an ADP system called Declassification and Review (DARE), which is also designed to be your record of those documents you have certified as requiring continued classification to protect national security interests. Only the head of an agency may make such a certification, and you certified the extension of classification for the years 1978 and 1979 on 29 April 1981.

25X1 2. We are now requesting your certification for entries to the DARE system during the year 1980. During that year [redacted] documents were reviewed. Of these, Classification Review Division recommends continued classification of [redacted] to protect the following:

Sources and Methods
Foreign Government Information
Foreign Relations
Cryptology
Other

The remaining 149 documents are being protected at the CONFIDENTIAL level pending coordination with other agencies. As before, we are attaching a random sampling of these documents for your perusal.

3. It is recommended that you certify the need for classification extension by signing the attached certificate.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Certification of Classification Extensions
Recorded in the DARE System

I hereby certify that the classification extensions resulting from the systematic review provisions of Executive Order 12065 and recorded in the Declassification and Review (DARE) system during the year 1980 are necessary for the protection of the national security interest of the United States of America. I am cognizant of the nature of the review process and reasons for continued classification, and I have personally reviewed a sampling of the documents involved.
